JUDICIAL OFFICER OF THE SUPERIOR COURT

This order is effective when made. It is enforceable in all 50 states, the District of Columbia, all tribal lands, and all U.S. territories and shall be enforced, as if it were an order of that jurisdiction, by any law enforcement agency that has received the order, is shown a copy of the order, or has verified its existence on the California Law Enforcement Telecommunications System (CLETS). If proof of service on the restrained person has not been received, and the restrained person was not present at the court hearing, the law enforcement agency shall advise the restrained person of the terms of the order and then shall enforce it.

This order meets all Full Faith and Credit requirements of the Violence Against Women Act, 18 U.S.C. 2265 (1994) (VAWA). This court has jurisdiction of the parties and the subject matter; the restrained person has been afforded notice and timely opportunity to be heard as provided by the laws of this jurisdiction.

Violations: Any person subject to a restraining order is prohibited from purchasing or attempting to purchase, receiving or attempting to receive, or otherwise obtaining a firearm. Such conduct is subject to a $1,000 fine and imprisonment. Under federal law, the issuance of a restraining order after hearing will generally prohibit the restrained person from owning, accepting, transporting, or possessing firearms or ammunition. A violation of this prohibition is a separate federal crime.

Violation of this restraining order may be punished as a contempt of court, a misdemeanor, punishable by one year in jail or a $1,000 fine, or both, or a felony. Taking or concealing a child in violation of this order is subject to state and federal criminal penalties.
